On the way back we will stop in Genoa, Nevada's oldest township and visit their museum and the famous Old Genoa Tavern. (bar). Lots of history here. Then rest up for the Douglas County Rodeo at the Douglas County fairground, 920 Pine Nut Road, Gardnerville, NV.

Gates open at 4 PM.

Sunday September 7th The morning is up to you. There are several wonderful churches in our area.

For breakfast, I suggest we meet at Sharky's Casino again as it has the most seating available on short notice reservations.

For those of you that would like to attend church, let me know early on and I will make sure we all get to a good place of worship!

For those that have early flights we should say our good by's on Saturday night. I hope and pray that you have had a great time and will have a safe journey home.

If you are staying and want to visit more of our area, like Lake Tahoe, we are located close to the roads that can take you up there from here in a short half hour drive.

Please send your banquet registration in as soon as possible; $60 pr person for dinner, includes one drink. Mail to WJS 1444 Glenwood Drive, Gardnerville, NV. More information Call Sharon @ 775-265-7137
